Dear Sir:

I am a member of the Riverside Church, New York City and have been in the Chair there for almost thirty years.

Last fall, new hymnals were installed and dedicated at a special Service. Ministry of Music Service having worn out four of the old ones during my years of service I decided to purchase a new book for my personal use and engagements at home. To add to that pleasure I have been asking my friends to autograph the pages of their favorite hymns. To those people, like you, who

I am writing my request, hoping that you will favor me with the honor of including your autograph in my hymnal. Would you give me that pleasure by indulging on the enclosed paper the same of one of your best - loved hymns and by signing your autograph which I may cut out and paste up on the page of your choice in my book?

I trust you will not consider this request too impudent for a reply.

With all good wishes to you,

Very truly yours,
Harriet A. Holloman
